EXHIBITION SPACE: Oratorio dei Crociferi

Placed on the left side of Campo dei Gesuiti, the Oratorio is an integral part of a medieval building having a simple hut structure — the Ospizio Renier Zen — founded in the XII century by the religious order of the Crociferi and assigned to a hospital and resting place for pilgrims and crusaders.

In fact it is tied to a significant episode of the late Venetian Renaissance: the cycle of paintings by Jacopo Palma il Giovane, executed between 1583 and 1592, covering completely the walls and the ceiling of the small oratory.

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

Join us from November 10th to 24th in Venice as we celebrate the empowerment of women in art during the 60th Venice Biennale. TOGETTHERE with a Woman is an international exhibition showcasing the diverse talents of female artists from around the globe, including Europe, the USA, Asia, Africa, and the Middle East. Hosted in the historically rich Oratorio dei Crociferi, this unique exhibition will feature over 15 artists and will encompass a wide array of artistic genres-graphics, photography, sculpture, digital and AI art, installations, and performances - each reflecting the multifaceted experiences of women world-

MISSION OF THE CURATOR

This exhibition unites female artists from diverse generations and cultures, whose works serve as powerful metaphors for women's strength and inner vision. Throughout history, women have shared their knowledge and personal stories, enriching both female and male spheres of society and imbuing cultural processes with profound meaning.

This initiative aims to liberate future generations by transferring wisdom and experience. The diversity of artistic genres and the venue itself come together to create a harmonious dialogue between past and present, where contemporary art engages with history, fostering a new understanding of female strength and creativity. We invite you to immerse yourself in this celebration of women's art and the rich narratives it embodies.

Marika Parsadanelli debuts with her most unique and profound art performance, Veritas, a true event in the world of art.

Performances will take place on November 9th, 15th and 22nd from 4:00PM. Admission is limited, but you can reserve free tickets on the website. Don't miss the chance to experience art that reveals the truth in a new and captivating form.

JOIN OUR WOMEN'S COMMUNITY

In addition to our seasonal exhibitions, we organize various programs aimed at supporting women in the arts. Participants can take part in art residencies around the world, where they can develop their skills and create new works in unique settings. We also offer free educational programs to help enhance knowledge and abilities.

Furthermore, we actively connect artists with global brands for potential collaborations and include them in our recommended list for galleries and collectors, reaching an audience of over 20,000 international art contacts. This creates unique opportunities for career development and valuable connections within the art community.
